

SPORTS

SPORTS

IF YOU WANT TO BE LISTED

Submit information by mail or fax (212-673-8382) to Brett Martin. Include details of venues, dates, times, prices, telephone numbers and nearest subways. Deadline is Monday, ten days prior to publication. Listings information will not be accepted over the telephone.

Things to Watch

Tennis

U.S. Open

USTA National Tennis Center, Flushing, Queens (888-OPEN-TLX). Subway: 7 to Willets Point-Shea Stadium. Thu 7 at 11am, 7:30pm. Men's doubles final/women's semifinals Fri 8 at 11am. Men's semifinals/women's final Sat 9 at 11am. Men's final Sun 10 at 4pm. $40.

CBS was already upset that Pete Sampras and Andre Agassi wound up on the same side of the U.S. Open draw and were thus unable to meet each other in the championship match.

You can only imagine the emotional feelings

Oh, the pane! The Bronx's Maurice Elmalem, a five-time world champion "breaker" and Guinness World Record holder, is just one of the attractions at the Oriental World of Self Defense, the 32-year-old exhibition that has introduced martial arts—from karate to tae kwon do to judo—to generations of Americans. The show will be at the Garden on Wednesday 13. You can hear a shudder run through the glass community. See Martial arts.